Comments	<input type="text" value="Despite living outside the area for 30 years. Oxford United are still very important to my life. As a season ticket holder I'll take the 8 hour round trip train journey every home to support the team. It has always been an integral part of my life. But during COVID with the online coverage and through some very difficult times since. The Football Club has been a significant in my mental health wellbeing. It would be a tragedy to let the club go out of business to pacify the small but vocal misguided nay sayers"/>
