Comments	<input type="text" value="There must be a permanent home for Oxford utd. The club is as valuable to the community as the Universities. Plans for science park's. university improvements are always given support.&lt;br/&gt;On one of the last Wembley appearances 35 000 attended.&lt;br/&gt;Witney Town fc was destroyed by our local council. North Leigh fc is slowly dying. Three generations from my family have attended games. Oxford utd are trying very hard to jump and appease all hurdles that are being placed in their way. The area for development is near major roads. Railways and Away from city centre. Oxford utd gives local children of all sexual orientations an identity and a chance to achieve aspirations in sport. A stadium that is planned would provide a venue for various community opportunities including music , sport , festivals, and many others.&lt;br/&gt;Please don't be part of the destruction of Oxford utd which could well happen.&lt;br/&gt;Saturday football is very much like a Religion that binds a community. Yes some people give football a bad name but that's the same in all walks of life.&lt;br/&gt;Oxford is not just for the Educated elite or the wealthiest there many of us who live just plain mediocre lives who value immensely what Oxford Utd provide for us. Please support our future and our children's future football destiny."/>
