Comments	<input type="text" value="I have supported Oxford United since I was 8 years old, at The Manor and The Kassam. Due to the Ogre Firoz Kassam the ability to stay at the Kassam Stadium is closed. The club would not be viable paying his exorbitant rent and fees which are the cause of the club losing money. The new ground in Kidlington is perfect for the club and supporters being close to link roads and transport hubs. The club will generate jobs and finance to the area as well as supporting youth and school kids in the community. I used to live in Headington and was a Police Officer having to escort fans from the railway station all the way to the ground 3 miles . The Kassam is even further away from the transport hubs and therefore most fans use motor vehicles to attend. In the triangle we have options to use local transport. I now live in Bloxham near Banbury and would use the bus or train to attend matches. I ask that the planning team look at all the advantages of this location and ignore the nimby's (most live the other side of Kidlington) who feel that the area should not be the home of the club I love. Hurry with your decision or I fear we will not have a club to support."/>
