Comments	<input type="text" value="As a oxfordshire resident and a oxford united supporter who attends every home game, I feel its very important this stadium gets build.&lt;br/&gt;At the moment we all have to drive to matches. Public transport is very poor to say the least for the current location. It takes me hours to take a bus as it stands so I have to drive. To have a train station next to the ground would mean I can take the train and leave the car. Also wouldn't it be better thenland gets uses for the larger community then just to build more homes no one can afford? That is apart from profit-making landlords or Londoners. The Real question should be why you don't want a station?&lt;br/&gt;To protect house pricies? That shouldn't concern the council.&lt;br/&gt;So yeah. Just let us save the club and everyone wins."/>
