Comments	<input type="text" value="My Dad who recently passed away first took me to my first Oxford game in 1977 and now a take my children. Oxford needs a new home and the Triangle is an idea is an idea location with excellent transport links . The stadium would create many new opportunities for the local area and pump millions of pounds in to the local economy. Hopefully one day my children will take their children and be proud to call the triangle their Home"/>
