Comments	<input type="text" value="James Barringer&lt;br/&gt;Having a professional football club in Oxford is crucial to both the economy and society. Economically, it provides jobs and leads to multiplier effect spending in shops, pubs and food outlets on matchdays before there is a consideration of the beyond-matchday uses of the stadium. Socially, it makes me and many other people in the county to have a team to follow and support. This galvanises a large part of society. Oxford United need a home. We have been told we can't stay at our current one. This proposal gives us an opportunity to build a sustainable new home that could be a blueprint for others around the country. A new opportunity for the City of Oxford to be leading the way."/>
