Comments	<input type="text" value="This would be an ideal home for Oxford United. It has good transport links and so is easily accessible for locals and for supporters who live further away (like us). We would come and stay at the hotel on some match days, or make good use of the park and ride schemes.

The football club is so important to the whole community. Even for those who aren't sports fans, the club provides support for the community and brings in good business and the related inward investment.

I wholeheartedly support the application."/>
