This is a project that we should wholeheartedly support. It will benefit not only our community but also the surrounding areas, particularly the younger generation, who will benefit from it for years to come. The stadium will generate employment opportunities for local businesses and offer excellent transport links, including Park and Ride, train station, and local buses from Oxford, making it easy for football supporters to attend matches. If constructed, it will be the first " we="" who="" will="" with="" year-round.=""/> |
