Comments	<input type="text" value="As an 88 year old, and somebody who has only seen Oxford United once (at Wembley), I still understand the huge enjoyment the club brings to its supporters, the County and the community.
I have lived in and around Oxford for all of my life. My father, husband, children and grandchildren have all gone up to see Headington United and Oxford United over many many years.
I have seen the new stadium plans. They seem fantastic and I really hope that the young people in.the County are able to enjoy the facilities and that the club will thrive and continue grow the community services that it offers.
It would be an absolute travesty if the club dies as a result of not having the Council support of this project."/>
