Comments	<input type="text" value="I would like to share some thoughts and support for the above-mentioned project around a new ground for Oxford United. Sport in general has such a powerful way of bringing a community together, giving people an escape, entertainment, hope and a sense of belonging. This project would reinforce this within Oxford, with a project that would allow growth for the football club as well as respecting environmental aspects to produce something that the area would be proud of and then envy of other counties. We cannot be left behind, and without additional flexibility from Kassam the football club is not able to grow."/>
