Comments	<input type="text" value="With society in decline and more and more people being isolated and neglected it is imperative that community and social venues are created. The stadium will not only be a place for football but also local events and activities. We need to build community spirit and help each other more instead of making new laws that can't be policed or expecting government to do it all, whoever is in charge. We need to take charge of our own lives."/>
