Comments	<input type="text" value="I have been a supporter of Headington/Oxford United since 1960 and a season ticket holder in the past. I want a new stadium as much as any other supporter, but this plan is a disaster. I could not think of a worse site for a stadium both in the site size and position. The supporters and club will rue the day if it goes ahead. The site is too small and the plan as proposed is total over development of the site with no room for the future. The position of the site next to the dual carriages is a recipe for disaster and there will be continual problems of access, both vehicular and pedestrian on match days and other days. I want a new stadium, but not this one. It cannot be that difficult to find a better site for a stadium. If the planners can find sites for 16000 houses around Oxford, surely they can find a more suitable site for a stadium. I know the situation is desperate, but I am sure Oxford United will survive and I will support them whatever happens."/>
