Comments	<input type="text" value="As an Oxford utd fan I feel this is an important time in the club's history to make a permanent home the basis of solid foundation to support the club for future generations, also something Oxfordshire can be proud of. I feel this this would bring opportunities within the area to further strengthen its positive gains. This project shouldn't become a political bargaining tool for opposing and keep this a community / sporting opportunity's to enjoy, not only for fans but other sections of the wider community that this has set out to achieve."/>
