Comments	<input "="" type="text" value="This building on the Green Belt is another attack to the green environment around Oxford. Furthermore traffic and consequent pollution will be increased by building the Stadium here, when there is already a stadium (the Kassam) which could be enhanced, with possibly less costs and disruption.&lt;br/&gt;&lt;br/&gt;Oxford is trying to become a greener city, yet this goes directly in the opposite direction, pandering (I believe) to economic interests, rather than environmental ones.&lt;br/&gt;&lt;br/&gt;We should build less, not more and especially not more buildings attracting traffic, noise and disruption.&lt;br/&gt;&lt;br/&gt;This building will impact nature (destroying green spaces) and the tranquil life of the local inhabitants, increasing noise and pollution. Weekends are the best days in this area, when the traffic in and out of the city is less, the aim should be to make the other days of the week as quiet and cleaner, instead of the opposite,"/>
