My daughter is on the autistic spectrum and her week revolves around everything Oxford united. The players, the matches and the whole build up to every game. She spends hours a week reading the Oufc website and fans forum for all new updates. How do I explain in a couple of years that it is all gone because permission for the building of the new planned stadium was turned down.
Tens of thousands of people support Oxford united football club, not just from Oxfordshire, but from around the world.
The new stadium at the triangle site surely must be built to allow over 100 years of history to continue, and for all the potential benefits that would come from the project.
Thank you."/>
