Comments	<input type="text" value="I have been a supporter of Oxford United (previously Headington United) since 1970 when my father was the landlord of the Fairview Inn between Headington and Cowley. As you can see from my address I now live in Dorset.

I am totally in favour of the new stadium as it provides a secure home for my football club. Personally it is going to make my journey to matches much simpler and straightforward with easier access to the A34. Once, when I was parking my car at the Grenoble ground I chatted to another lifelong supporter who lived in Nottingham. The new stadium is going to be a boon for for us long distance supporters."/>
