Comments	<input type="text" value="Oxford United is a famous club and an asset to our great City. It deserves a better home than the Kassam. I think Kidlington, where so much of the club's support comes from, is an ideal spot for the new stadium. There is evidently enough space and crucially road + rail infrastructure is also largely already in place. There will be obvious financial benefits to the local area, including Summertown where I live. I hope the application is granted."/>
