Comments	<input type="text" value="Oxford United are an incredibly important community asset for the entire county, and are at risk of being able to continue without a stadium home that they own and from which they can generate important revenue to support both their business and community charitable endeavours. The club means much to a lot of people, evidenced especially during the pandemic and the loss of regular activity and its impact on the community, and individual mental health. The club have also sought to ensure planning means the key principles outlined by the council, and are aiming to ensure the environmental and social impact on the local and wider area are not only positive, but setting a new standard for stadium design across the country and further afield. A city such as Oxford, and a county such as Oxfordshire, deserves a stadium that is fitting to its existing global significance and impact."/>
