Comments	<input type="text" value="This is a defining moment not just for oxford United but all of oxford itself. Having been a supporter for over 50 years I have seen what football means to people, it instills a sense of community, belonging, friendships are made that endure all through a love of football. This may sound melodramatic but it is a fact. The proposed new stadium is a massive chance for so many new friendships to be made,I can understand residents reservations regarding traffic will I'm sure be addressed, and not be an issue. Without the stadium planning going ahead I feel this could sound the death knell for our beloved football club,so I urge you to vote yes."/>
