Comments	<input type="text" value="I am a Kidlington resident and although not an Oxford United fan, I have been to watch them occasionally over the years.

The stadium in Kidlington would be great for the area bringing a buzz on match days. It is a much better location than the Kassam which is a nightmare to travel to with hardly any options for public transport.

It is a real shame that the original proposal is not going forward at Stratfield Brake, the community facilities there were due to be fantastic.

I look forward to this hopefully going ahead and the county continuing to have a sports club to be proud of."/>
