Comments	<input type="text" value="I strongly support the building of a new home for Oxford united to provide a state of the art facility for the hole Oxfordshire community to use for generations to come . Matches day will only be around 30days of a year so disruption is minimal . This stadium will bring new life to the area and mean a lot to the future and survive of Oxford united football club . Please don't be the Committee the kills this great club which gives so much back in many different ways to many walks of life ."/>
