Comments	<input type="text" value="Oxford United is one of the few unifying institutions the city and region has that is independent of the university and other dominant institutions. Going to games you will see a true cross section of society with people from diverse backgrounds and parts of the city/country. The club needs a new home befitting of its status, history and popularity.

The club have suffered immensely from poor leadership in the past, and the current situation with the leasing of The Kassam is unsustainable, and not fitting a club or city with the history both have.

Without this development, Oxford United could face homelessness by 2026. As a vital part of our community, it is imperative that the necessary steps are taken to secure the future of our beloved football club.

Despite this constant issue the team have performed admirably on the pitch and this stadium proposal is sensible, sound and with a robust funding model and buy in from key stakeholders.

Give the community something to be proud of and it will reap rewards in the future."/>
