Comments	<input type="text" value="As someone who was born in Oxfordshire and used to watch Oxford Utd at the old Headington ground it is good to see this, what will be a really positive thing for Oxford, a modern and safe ground, good transport links and with good green credentials. This is what all stadiums should have. Football is part of the fabric of British life and we should encourage its sustainability, a problem with the current ground arrangements. Looking forward to visiting and seeing a game there."/>
