Comments	<input type="text" value="The development of this stadium is fundamental to the future of Oxford United. For people who do not follow football they will not be able to appreciate the unity and sense of community that belonging to a fan base can bring. The negative effects of the stadium development will be significantly outweighed by the benefits which the club and its will bring. It is crucial that the County Council consider the positive community impact and the hopes and dreams of thousands of Oxford fans, rather than pandering to a small but aggressive minority who have their own vested interests and make no attempt to understand why the club is so important to so many."/>
