Comments	<input type="text" value="Oxfordshire deserves to have a modern stadium which oxford United and it's supporters can call home, but also be a beacon in the community and thought Oxfordshire. Many great cities are proud of there sports team &amp; the good feeling it can provide, when engaging and hopefully successful. This city and a few vocal nimbys to find various ways to block anything that doesn't fit their elite mentality. There will never be a better opportunity with the ownership group willing to get this done. Having reviewed the plans, they meet the requirements set out. Don't use the club as a political football. Give the future generations something to be proud of."/>
