Comments	<input type="text" value="Oxford united is a community pillar, without it many will struggle. This is more than 11 players on a pitch, many young people with serious illnesses have pulled through or stayed positive purely with the thoughts of returning to see their beloved team, or having players visit them in their own time to wish them well. Oxford united for many is a reason to keep living, is a reason to smile, it is a small period where you can switch of from the mental perils that life is, where you live in the moment, feel part of something, a family, a community. We need this, Oxford needs this. Do not let this club die, Oxford united needs a home, a sustainable home."/>
