Comments	<input type="text" value="At this time Oxfordshire does not possess any innovative or leading sporting venues that benefit the area. With the exception of Gloucestershire every neighbouring county has sporting venues which not only attract international sports, such as Milton Keynes hosting England Lionesses but also concerts/arenas.

The site itself boasts the advantage of having almost unparalleled transport links within the county owing to the close proximity of rail station and A34 and can be nothing but beneficial to both Cherwell and Oxfordshire on the whole."/>
