Comments	<input type="text" value="The lack of planning by Oxford United Football Club (OUFC) should not burden residents with the consequences of traffic chaos and disruptions to daily routines. The potential impacts, such as difficulty accessing regular destinations during games or events, and concerns about road closures and congestion, are legitimate and troubling. Road closures may seem far-fetched, but they can indeed occur during large events, exacerbating traffic congestion and making it challenging to navigate through the area. Additionally, the strain on parking, both for cars and bicycles, can inconvenience residents and disrupt normal activities such as using the park and ride or grocery shopping. Noise and traffic pollution generated by increased activity around the stadium during events further compound these issues, affecting the quality of life for nearby residents."/>
