Comments	<input type="text" value="Generally only people opposed to projects take the time to comment on forms like this, while those who would potentially benefit from more construction and a better housing market are too diffuse to focus on commenting on a project and those that never move into houses that are not constructed also never comment. So I wanted to rectify that imbalance a bit. Oxford desperately needs more housing construction. I just read about this project in the Clarion and as someone who is renting in Oxford but potentially looking to buy in the future to start a family, I wanted to voice my support for projects like this."/>
