Comments	<input type="text" value="The traffic along that road and throughout Banbury is horrendous as it is, especially at school time. The whole town will be at a stand still, Banbury does not have enough support services ie primary and secondary schools, dentist, Dr's or full services at the hospital to support the people of Banbury let alone adding another 825 houses. Ruining the country side and dehousing wildlife around the area and all the villages are merging into one giant Banbury there's no definition between Adderbury and Banbury if this goes ahead Adderbury may as well be Banbury. How can our emergency services who are understaffed take on even more responsibility and cope with this added pressure of extra people. I can't even get my children into my local primary school because there's not enough places available so I have to drive to Banbury to their school from Bloxham and that takes me 25 minutes at school run time just to get to school so if more houses means more people and more cars on the road it's not safe. Consent rate on lower rent in the town centre so shops can open and not have empty units. There's nothing left in the town centre worth going there for. The houses won't be cheap enough for first time buyers, they said Longford Park would be affordable housing but it's not."/>
